At SPARKOH!, Belgium's largest science centre, science becomes child's play! For all ages, dive into the fascinating world of science and technology. Explore with your family through immersive and interactive exhibits, a 4D cinema, fun areas – an indoor acrobatic course and an outdoor playground – outdoor spaces, and supervised activities during school holidays (*) and experience emotions scientifically proven!

Never visited us before? Don't wait any longer! Let the magic of science amaze you!

> Conquering science

Is it possible to have fun with science and technology?

At SPARKOH!, explore interactive spaces and experience them through your senses!

Think science is boring? Think again ;-)

Observe, play, touch, experiment, explore and most of all, have fun!

From discoveries to experiments, riddles to surprises, explorations to astonishment Science will keep surprising you in SPARKOH!'s 17 exhibitions!

> Scientastic Workshops (*)

During school holidays in Wallonia-Brussels, choose a family-friendly activity to discover, manipulate, and experiment. Together with both kids and adults, take on challenges, show creativity and ingenuity, but most importantly, enjoy quality family time. One 45-minute workshop per family – by registration – subject to availability.

> Fun and "nature" outdoor spaces

Want to stretch your legs? Head to the play areas featuring a 3-storey indoor treetop course and a vast 3,000 m² outdoor playground.

You can also explore the Biodiversity Garden or climb the slag heap to discover the landscape and heritage trails!
